The charming Bavarian town on the banks of the river Inn and Mangfall tributary, is known for its rich history and picturesque scenery.

Historical Highlights

- Neubeuern: The oldest rack railway in Germany climbs from Brannenburg to the crest of the Alps. The two monumental towers of the "Kloster Gars" Monastery dominate the town's skyline.
- Raubling: The Rococo church ‘Attel’ and the ‘Städtische Galerie’ are must-sees for art lovers.
- Flintsbach Rosenheim: The "Votivtafeln" (plaques) of the St. Oswald church and the holy baptismal font have made this town a popular place of pilgrimage.
- Wasserburg am Inn: A composition of every architectural era, but the real gem that lends this town its flair is the Baroque Silver Areal, where they fly over the floodplains of the River Inn.
